12 THE BLAME GAME

Professor Keith Hayward FRAeS takes an in-depth look at the political fallout from the controversial cancellation of the Vickers V.1000/VC7 jet transport in 1955

22 THE LAST SEAGULL

In 1959 former RAAF Supermarine Seagull Mk V A2-4 was returned to airworthy status for a pleasure-flying life on the ocean wave. James Kightly details the aircraft's full history

32 THE MOLOTOV EXPRESS

With the help of contemporary documents Ray Flude explores the part played by two particular aircraft in establishing the vital wartime "air bridge" between Russia and its allies

44 NEW YEAR ON SKYLINE RIDGE

In 1966 Jonathan Pote was working as a medical student in Laos when he was invited to celebrate Meo New Year at Sam Thong — accessible only with the help of Air America

52 MR CODY & MR ROE: TWO REMARKABLE MEN

Philip Jarrett opens a two-part series in which he compares the working methods, struggles and achievements of two of Britain's greatest air pioneers: Samuel Cody and A.V. Roe

62 BEIRUT: LEBANON'S PROPLINER PARADISE

Our regular series based on newly-discovered rolls of film taken by aviation journalist John Stroud continues with his 1955–56 visits to Lebanon's thriving hub of airliner activity

70 BUNNY POWER!

David G. Powers traces the history of US Navy development squadron VX-4, and explains why it adopted an all-black F-4 Phantom — with Playboy bunny logo — as its flagship

78 YOUNG JAPAN

In 1931 two inexperienced Japanese aviators set off from Tokyo in a biplane bound for Rome — 8,500 miles away. Kōji Yanagisawa chronicles their epic 92-day adventure

90 AN EYE FOR DETAIL: A PROPER FIREBOMBER!

Next up in Juanita Franz's series on unusual airframes and their markings is a much-travelled Avro Lancaster and its proposed conversion into a water-bomber in Canada

92 MACHTRAINER

Dutch aviation historian Nico Braas describes how Fokker's post-war determination to build the world's first dedicated jet trainer led only to poor sales and a tragic setback

104 LOCAL HERO

The heroic actions of 1st Lt Royce Stephens, recipient of the first Distinguished Flying Cross to be awarded during the Berlin Airlift, are commemorated by Andreas Metzmacher

110 THE HOT SEAT

Nick Stroud investigates the USA's late 1960s AERCAB project, devised to develop a jet-powered "flyaway" ejection seat as part of an attempt to reduce pilot losses in Vietnam

120 ARMCHAIR AVIATION

125 LOST & FOUND

126 PIERRE'S MAGICAL MYSTERY TOURER

Little is known about the nine Bristol Tourers sent to the USA in the early 1920s; Michael O'Leary pieces together the story of what happened to at least one of them
