

58

30

72

20

94

36

10

CONTENTS Issue No 34

3 EDITOR'S LETTER

6 AIR CORRESPONDENCE

10 COLLAPSE OF AN ICON

50 years ago Rolls-Royce declared bankruptcy; as one of Britain's "jewels in the crown", it was a profound trauma for the newly elected Conservative government. Professor Keith Hayward FRAeS examines the political background

20 ROVER DAVID Pt 1

Vic Flintham opens a two-part series on the genesis and development of the RAF's close air-support role in North Africa and the Mediterranean during the Second World War, culminating in the Rover David "cab rank" system

30 CES HOMMES MAGNIFIQUES: D'ECQUEVILLY

Jean-Christophe Carbone's series on France's "magnificent men" continues with submarine designer Raymond D'Ecquevilly's (mercifully) brief flirtation with aviation

36 DECIDEDLY COSMOPOLITAN

When the United Nations despatched a peacekeeping force to the new Republic of the Congo in 1960, one of the most crucial units was the truly international C-47 Squadron; Leif Hellström chronicles its four-year career

50 THE SHORT TRAGIC LIFE OF THE AIRSHIP ROMA

Italian aviation historian Luigino Caliaro traces the all-too-brief life of the ill-fated semi-rigid dirigible Roma, which came to grief after arriving in the USA in early 1922

58 CZECHOSLOVAKIA'S CAREFULLY SERVING AIRLINE

Maurice Wickstead charts the evolution of one of Europe's oldest and most resilient state airlines, Czechoslovakia's CSA, established in 1923 and still going — just — despite numerous operational and political setbacks along the way

72 THE PALE BLUE LINE

The Korean conflict is often thought of as a purely American affair — but, along with the valiant efforts of the Australians, some 77 RAF pilots also participated in combat over Korea, as Michael Napier explains

84 PERSIA'S ELEPHANTS

Babak Taghvaei reveals how Iran's fleet of Boeing 747 transports and tankers, acquired in the mid-1970s, were used on some extraordinary low-level missions

94 BOAC & THE BRABAZON COMMITTEE

Following on from Professor Keith Hayward's look at the politics of the Brabazon Committee in TAH33, Ralph Pegram explores how BOAC's perspective differed

106 ON THE WINGS OF THE HANSA Pt 2

Using interviews and first-hand accounts, Albert Grandolini continues his three-part series on the flying career of Cambodian military pilot Major Su Sampong

114 SPECIAL DELIVERY-

Nick Stroud provides some background for a set of photos showing a Pan Am DC-6 delivery in Brussels

118 ARMCHAIR AVIATION

123 LOST & FOUND

124 EVERY HOME SHOULD HAVE ONE . . .

Chris Gibson takes another deep dive into the archives to uncover a supremely optimistic 1957 Royal Aircraft Establishment concept for a hypersonic ramjet tip-rotor-powered VTOL personal transport. Covered in fur.

130 OFF THE BEATEN TRACK