

WOULD THE REAL HR204 PLEASE STAND UP?

During a recent trawl of the TAH photographic archive for upcoming material, the Editor found an intriguing negative apparently showing two de Havilland Mosquitoes with the same serial. Curiosity piqued, he forwarded it to Mosquito specialists IAN THIRSK & MIKE PACKHAM, to see if they could throw any light on how this pair of wooden wonders had ended up with the same identity. They managed to piece some of the puzzle together, but need your help to complete it . . . ➡
